

An Alliteration Challenge from Mrs Hyde

Can you write some super alliteration sentences about different minibeasts?

Younger pupils could think of a list two words. E.g slippery slug, creepy caterpillar

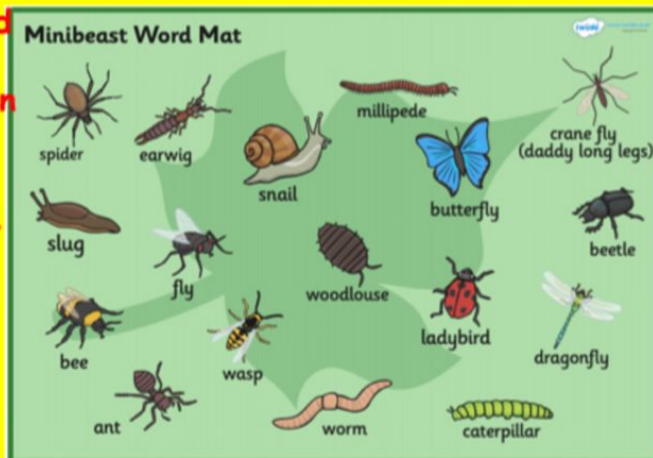

Older pupils - challenge yourself to write a long alliteration sentences

You can write your sentences using JiT5 in your Hwb account and add a drawing or you can write on paper and send us a photo using the learning@mountstreeti.powys.sch.uk

Examples

The scary spider slithered around the slimy webs when he crawled across the slippery snake.

The dragonfly flew around the dreadful, dirty dog.

The beautiful, blue butterfly fluttered briskly along the pretty, blue sky.

The little ladybird lay lazily on the lime-coloured, little leaf.

The cute caterpillar crawled along the creamy, crazy cat. PIC•COLLAGE
